

A.P. STATE ELECTION COMMISSION
3rd Floor, Buddha Bhavan, M.G. Road, Secunderabad-500 003.

CITIZEN CHARTER

I. BACKGROUND:

Under Article 243K and 243ZA of the Constitution of India, superintendence, direction and control of preparation of electoral rolls for conduct of all elections to Panchayat Raj and Municipal bodies in the State shall be vested in a State Election Commission consisting of a State Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor.

After bifurcation of the State, the Government of Andhra Pradesh constituted the State Election Commission for the State of Andhra Pradesh.

The powers and functions of the State Election Commission under Article 243K and 243ZA of the Constitution of India are identical to those vested in the Election Commission of India constituted under Article 324 of the Constitution of India in their respective domains. The Election Commission of India is vested with the responsibility of conducting elections to House of People and State Legislative Assemblies whereas the State Election Commission with the conduct of elections to Rural and Urban Local Bodies in the State.

Under Article 243K(3) of the Constitution of India and Section 201(4) of Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act 1994, on the request of the State Election Commission, the State Government shall place at the disposal of the Commission such staff of the State Government and also local bodies for the purpose of conduct of elections to local bodies.

The State Election Commission is an independent Constitutional body and it cannot be considered as a department under the control of the State Government. However, the staff and the funds required for running the Commission are provided by the State Government as enshrined in the Constitution of India and A.P.P.R. Act, 1994. The A.P. State Election Commission has no subordinate offices at the district level.
